

Tour to Hardangerfjord from Bergen 2018-2019

The trip can be made both in winter and summer.

This schedule and prices are valid: October 2018 - April 2019

Duration: approximately 6 hours.

Departure from Bergen at 10:00, return at about 16:00. From Bergen, you will go to Hardangerfjord via the road number 7, which in itself is a tourist attraction. Along the way there will be beautiful views: mountains, lakes, waterfalls. On the way to Hardangerfjord you will make stops at two waterfalls - Fossen Bratte (or Bridal veil) and Steinsdalsfossen, under which one can walk. In winter, the waterfalls may be frozen. Further we will drive along Hardangerfjord with a stop on a platform near the road overlooking the fjord and the surrounding landscape. In good weather, you can see the top of the Folgefonna glacier. We continue travelling through the village of Granvin and return to Bergen through the city of Voss.
